St. Vincent de Paul Society News

In today's Gospel Jesus tells us to "strive to enter through the narrow gate." Our call to be disciples and to follow Jesus demands that we learn to live for the sake of others.

In the month of August, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to assist individuals and families in our neighborhood, providing food, rent assistance, utility payments, and more. Thank you and God bless you!

Pilgrimage to the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception

St. Andrew and neighboring parishes will sponsor a bus trip as part of the Archdiocesan Pilgrimage to the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, DC on Saturday, October 15. This special day honors our Blessed Mother Mary and includes praying the Rosary, confessions, exposition of the Most Blessed Sacrament, a procession and crowning of a statue of Mary, and concludes with the celebration of Holy Mass. In addition to a full day at the Shrine, pilgrims will have a light breakfast on the bus, a boxed lunch to enjoy on the grounds, and a stop for dinner on the way home. For more information, please contact parishioner Tina Angelo (610-513-8731). The cost of the trip is $50.

Respect Life Ministry News

The Respect Life effort needs your support more than ever now that the Supreme Court has overturned Roe v. Wade. This month, we are highlighting local organizations that strive to uphold the respect and dignity of God's gift of life.

The Gianna Center of Philadelphia is dedicated to providing general gynecologic care, natural family planning education, and infertility services - all while honoring the sanctity of each human life, the dignity of women, and the integrity of marriage. All medical treatments are aimed at restoring the reproductive system and work cooperatively with a woman's body. Named for St. Gianna Molla, the ultimate goal and purpose of the Gianna Center is to lay the foundation necessary for the culture of life to flourish in the lives of individuals and families.

It has been said that there can be no Pro-Life movement without Pro-Life healthcare. Please consider supporting the Gianna Center so that it may continue its life-saving work. Visit PhGiannaCenter.org to learn more.

To learn more about St. Andrew's Respect Life Ministry, please contact Raphael Vantine (610-613-7481). Join us as we stand for the sanctity of all human life from conception until natural death.

Shepherd's P.I.E.

... Pastoral Insights Expressed

Dear Friends,

In today's Second Reading, the author of the Letter to the Hebrews writes: You have forgotten the exhortation addressed to you as children: "My son, do not disdain the discipline of the Lord or lose heart when reproved by Him; for whom the Lord loves, He disciplines; He scourges every son He acknowledges." Endure your trials as "discipline"; God treats you as sons. In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus asks: "Yes; and have you never read the text, 'Out of the mouths of infants and nurslings you have brought forth praise?'" (21:16) So maybe, it might be important for us to listen and observe what our children say and do ... inevitably, they will reveal ourselves to us.

For example, there's a story of a woman who invited some people to the family home for dinner. At the table, she turned to her six-year-old daughter and said, "Would you like to say the blessing?" The little girl replied, "I wouldn't know what to say." "Just say what you hear Mommy say," her mother gently advised. The girl bowed her head and after a moment of silence said: "O Lord, why on earth did I invite all these people to dinner?" Or at another family's Sunday morning breakfast, a dad was preparing pancakes for his sons, Kevin 5, and Ryan 3. The boys began to argue over who would get the first pancake. Their father saw the opportunity for a moral lesson. "If Jesus were sitting here, He would say, 'Let my brother have the first pancake, I can wait.'" Kevin turned to his younger brother and said, "Ryan, you be Jesus!" And while these stories are funny; what follows will bring a tear to your eye because of its goodness and innocence. Allow me to share an article posted by Steve Hartmann, a CBS newscorrespondent in Toledo, Ohio, on 28 February 2014:

Myles Eckert-age 8 (2014)

At the Ohio Air National Guard base near Toledo, Lt. Col. Frank Dailey still can't believe the honor recently bestowed upon him. "It's incredible being recognized in such a manner," he says. It happened at a Cracker Barrel, of all places. As the security camera shows, Dailey entered the restaurant on Feb. 7 for an early lunch. At about the same time, 8-year-old Myles Eckert came in with his family. Myles was very excited. He'd just found a $20 bill in the parking lot. He'd started thinking of what he could spend it on. "I kind of wanted to get a video game, but then I decided not to," Myles says. He changed his mind when he saw the guy in uniform. "Because he was a soldier, and soldiers remind me of my dad," Myles explains.

And so, with his dad in mind, Myles wrapped the $20 in a note that read, "Dear Soldier -- my dad was a soldier. He's in heaven now. I found this 20 dollars in the parking lot when we got here. We like to pay it forward in my family. It's your lucky day! Thank you for your service. Myles Eckert, a gold star kid." Myles wrapped the $20 in a note and gave it to Lt. Col. Frank Dailey.

Army Sgt. Andy Eckert [Myles' dad] was killed in Iraq, just five weeks after Myles was born. All the kid has ever had are pictures and dog tags, other people's memories and his own imagination. "I imagine him as a really nice person and somebody that would be really fun," Myles says. The dad he imagines must also love a good story. Because after lunch that day, Myles asked his mom, Tiffany, to make one more stop. "He wanted to go see his dad," Tiffany says. "And he wanted to go by himself that day." She took a photo from the car ... you'll see Myles standing there ... presumably telling his dad all about it. And whether heaven heard him or not, his good deed continues to impress here on earth. "I look at it every day," Dailey says of the note Myles gave him. It turns out Myles gave him a bigger gift than $20. "A lifetime direction, for sure," Dailey says. Dailey says he's already given away that $20 and plans to do much more. He also hopes that little green Post-It will inspire other people across the country to give - - to give as sincerely and dutifully as that father and son.

So the questions are: "Where is your heart?" "What is your treasure?" "Do your kids know?" Be of good cheer and have a blessed week!

St. John's Hospice Casserole Program

"Never be afraid to trust an unknown future to a known God." ~ Corrie ten Boom

"When you think of a homeless shelter, what do you think of? Basic, shared rooms for people to spend the night? A large communal kitchen where volunteers serve meals? Lots of people sharing the same space?" These images do hold true for many emergency shelters, but they don't tell the whole story. What makes St. John's Hospice unique? Their approach to compassionate care is Catholic. They don't leave men on the street to die alone. The medically fragile are given a bed and taken care of in the Good Shepherd Program. Forty men are given temporary residence with social services to help them turn their lives around. This includes assistance in finding a job and permanent housing or possibly continuing their education. In short, they help a person convert his life from one without hope to one with hope.

"Individuals who are chronically homeless may struggle with persistent mental illness, disabilities and/or addiction. Yet people without these obstacles can fall into the cycle of chronic homelessness. The growing gap between climbing housing costs and stagnant or falling incomes is more than enough to lead to repeated homelessness for lots of people." (Information taken from the Bethesda Project.) You can be a part of the solution. Please consider making a main dish casserole this month and joining our team of cooks. Frozen main dish casseroles can be dropped off on Tuesday, August 23 from 3:00 - 4:00 PM at the Mason Avenue door to the food pantry. Kindly mark the lid of your casserole with the main ingredients and the date prepared. Pans and lids can be found at the entrance of the church. Questions can be addressed to the Outreach Office at 484-461-4954. Thank you for your service to the needy.

“Say the Word”

Reflections from St. Andrew CCD / PREP

by Sr. Theresa Marie Moore, pvmi

"So, what brought you here this weekend?" I asked her. "I saw a post on Instagram and thought I would check it out. I remembered my granny mentioning the group years ago," she said. "What about you?" I asked her friend. "I saw a little poster someone posted in the back of my Church and it looked interesting, so I signed up." "How about you, Sister?" "We heard about it from other Sisters who had been here before." We were at the Youth 2000 Summer Festival in Clane, Couty Kildare, Ireland, and were discussing how we ended up there.

Each of us was invited by someone and we responded to the invitation. However, Pope Francis tells us that "Before our response to His invitation - well before! - there is His desire for us. We may not even be aware of it, but every time we go to Mass, the first reason is that we are drawn there by His desire for us...indeed, every reception of communion of the Body and Blood of Christ was already desired by Him in the Last Supper." The deeper reason that we were there is that Christ desired for us to be there.

Each of those young people responded to Christ's drawing them to Him, to His desire to be united to them, communicated to them through another person. We may wonder if our invitations to the Lord's Supper fall on deaf ears. The person who posted on Instagram or hung up a flyer in the back of their church may never know the effect of their effort to spread the Good News, but they were allowed to be instruments of God's desire for communion with these young women, who will return to their parishes after encountering Christ and being renewed in the community of faith.

Prayers for PREP - Come, Lord Jesus. Draw more and more souls to You at the Supper of the Lamb (the Mass). May I be an instrument to fulfill Your desire, even if I never know my role was effective. As a new academic year approaches, bring to my mind someone I can invite directly or indirectly to join our Parish Religious Education Program, receive the Sacraments, or join the Catholic Church. Show me Your way Lord, that I may help to set the world on fire with Your love! Amen.
